ABOUT TRAVIS HEARN

PASTOR, AUTHOR, AND NBA TEAM CHAPLAIN

Pastor Travis Hearn is the Senior Pastor of Impact Church in Scottsdale, Arizona and Team Chaplain for the NBA's Phoenix Suns. Impact Church, which started as a bible study for the NFL's Arizona Cardinals, sees an average of over 10,000 attendees each week (and growing), reflecting the church's rapid and consistent growth. Known for his bold preaching, unwavering commitment to biblical truth, and down-to-earth authenticity, Travis brings a unique ability to connect with people from all walks of life.

What sets him apart is his transparency and vulnerability—Travis speaks from personal experience, sharing both the triumphs and the struggles that have shaped his faith.

Travis's personal journey through a life-threatening stroke has given him a powerful testimony and a deeper understanding of God's miraculous power. Unlike many pastors, Travis has lived through immense adversity and knows firsthand how to rely on faith in the darkest moments. His upcoming book, The Fire is For You, offers readers more than just encouragement; it provides practical tools to help them navigate their own fiery trials with unwavering faith.

Whether preaching to thousands at Impact Church or mentoring professional athletes, Travis's message is clear: God's strength shows up in our struggles, and no fire is too great for Him to turn into a testimony. Travis's ability to blend real-world experience with profound biblical truth makes his message not only relatable but life-changing. He leads with humility, speaking to the heart of every listener, from the everyday believer to those in high-pressure environments like professional sports.

What makes Pastor Travis truly different is his relentless belief that no challenge is wasted. He emphasizes that every trial can be transformed into a story of God's grace and goodness. This message of resilience, faith, and hope has resonated with thousands, contributing to the explosive growth of Impact Church under his leadership.
